

ABSTRACT

It is the purpose of this thesis to explore the relationships that exist between a particular collection of group matrices, namely, balanced generalized weighing matrices, to particular classes of association schemes.

It will be shown that any balanced generalized weighing matrix with entries from a finite abelian group is equivalent to the existence of a family of both commutative and non-commutative association schemes.